MyES

My job duties include teaching students english from all levels (beginner to expert) and of all ages, within the school the ages range from around 12 to 80, in both grammar lessons and conversation-based activities. Responsible for creating and running both social and educational events at school and around the city. Lessons are primarily conversation focused using the communicative method (which focuses on the student speaking as much as possible), with a strong grammatical foundation to improve clarity and accuracy during such communication. I have also instructed lessons based around exam preparation of Cambridge, LanguageCert, and IELTS exams.
